

TOM HORN, SCOUT AND MURDERER, DIES ON A WYOMING GALLOWS

A Friend of Buffalo Bill, a Daring Desperado and Cold Blooded Murderer, Meets His Fate.

KILLED MANY MEN

Was an Employee of the Cattlemen Kings, to Rid the Country of Sheep Men.

(Special By Scripps-McBee.) Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 20.—Tom Horn, celebrated as a scout and Indian trapper, the man who guided the United States troops to the retreat of Geronimo, the Apache chief; head packmaster of the government trains in the Porto Rican campaign, one-time friend of Gen. Miles and Col. W. F. Cody, ex-Pinkerton and range stock detective of unequalled ability, hired assassin of some of the cattle barons of the western plains, today expiated his many crimes on the gallows.

The crime for which he was sent to the hangman was the murder of Willie Nickell, a 15-year-old sheepherder, the last of a series of murders that stamped Horn as a veritable fiend, absolutely devoid of any regard for human life.

The Nickell murder, committed late in 1901, was Horn's last and most atrocious.

Willie Nickell's father had had a quarrel with a cattlemen. Their interests clashed, Nickell being a sheep man. For years the sheepmen and cattlemen had been at loggerheads, the cattlemen seeking to drive the sheepmen off the ranges. Nickell refused to be driven away, so, according to the evidence adduced at Horn's trial, it was decided to put him where he would be unable to oppose the forcible encroachments of the cattlemen.

Given the Job

To Tom Horn was delegated this task. He went forth as bravely as though he were going to a wedding or ranch dance. The Nickell house was his objective, but on the way he met Willie Nickell, peacefully herding his father's sheep. What impelled him to do it unless it was a fear that he might be a witness to the father's murder, no one knows, but leastwise Horn took a pot shot at the lad, sending the bullet into the back of his head and killing him instantly. Then placing a rock under his victim's head, a sign agreed upon to show that the deed was Horn's, the murderer rode on to kill the father, but failed to find him.

Horn Arrested

Four months later Horn was arrested and made a full confession to Deputy U. S. Marshall Laforet, a noted frontier officer, scout and hunter. Horn at the time was arranging to go to Montana where he had been engaged to put some rustlers out of the way and it was to convince Laforet that he (Horn) was an expert in the killing line in order to get a recommendation from the officer, who he supposed was a killer of his own stripe, that he made the confession. In his statement he detailed every murder that he had committed, from the first killing to the putting to death of the Nickell boy. According to his story his first victim was a lieutenant in the Mexican army. During his residence on the Mexican border Horn made frequent trips into Mexico with Uncle Sam's troops. On one of these visits he quarreled with a lieutenant in the Mexican army over the affection of a beautiful Mexican girl. Next morning the lieutenant's body was found near his quarters. For ten or twelve years Horn remained on the border and in 1891 came to Wyoming at the head of a band of 50 desperate characters gathered in Texas and along the Mexican border to participate in what is known as the Johnson county raid—a movement of the cattle barons to drive out cattle rustlers from the Powder river country. Nate, Champion and Ed Ray, alleged rustlers, were killed. Following these murders numerous rustlers and the sheepmen were put out of the way and in each instance there was almost conclusive evidence that Horn was the murderer, but no one dared arrest him. Between 1891 and until the Nickell murder he was variously employed, principally as a range stock detective, his duty being to get rid of rustlers and sheepmen. To his deadly aim are attributed the deaths of Chas. Lewis and Wm. Powell sheepmen, in 1894. Two years later Edward Campbell was killed and Horn was the assassin. In 1898 Mat Rash and Isaac Dart, ranchmen in Routt county, Col., were murdered in Routt county, Col. Horn was on the ground. He admitted being there and it has since become known that wealthy cattlemen hired Horn to put them out of the way. At the time of the Lewis, Powell, Rash and Dart murders Horn was employed by stock associations which included in their membership some of the leading men of Wyoming, Colorado and Nevada.

The Trial of Horn

The trial of Horn cost Laramie county $40,000 and it is estimated that even a larger sum was spent to clear Horn. While awaiting the result of an appeal to the supreme court Horn broke jail after a terrific battle with an undersheriff, but was recaptured. Several plots to rescue him were discovered and frustrated.

BADGER TEAM GOES TO CHICAGO

Passed Through Janesville This Morning, on Its Way To Meet Northwestern

Expecting a hard contest, yet confident of victory by a small score, the Wisconsin football squad of forty-one men passed through here at 10:15 this morning on their way to meet Northwestern on Saturday. In Chicago the team lunched at the Victoria hotel, and were then driven to the Chicago Beach hotel, which is to be the Wisconsin headquarters. Several hundred students will leave Madison Saturday morning and return Saturday evening after the game.

Supporters of the team expect Wisconsin to win, but are not looking for an easy victory, and two touchdowns will be satisfactory.

Wisconsin will go into the game in as good condition as when the team lined up against Michigan, although a few men will carry bruises. A play not yet used this season will probably be tried if the opportunity offers, as Washer, the big tackle, has practised all week at place kicking, and has done well. Bush probably will do the punting, although his kicking leg is lame. He has improved steadily on kicking during the week and should gain long distances on exchanges of kicks.

Yesterday afternoon the men had their first scrimmage since the Michigan game, and for a good half hour worked hard in opposition to the scrubs, who were utterly unable to turn the fierce rushes of the varsity backs. The varsity defense was also strong.

Four regulars were not in the lineup, Abbott, Wrabett, Remp, and Scofield. Clark of Nebraska worked at left end, O'Brien played center position, Robbins was at right half, and Perry played full back.

Officials of the Minnesota-Wisconsin game will be

Darby, Grinnell, referee; Borland, Illinois, umpire; and Gale, Chicago, head linesman.

OPAL BELVEVAL MARRIED IN ROCKFORD THIS AFTERNOON

Evansville Girl Marries Bert Bratt, a Western Union Telegraph Operator.

Opal Belveal and Bert Bratt, a Western Union operator from Chicago, went to Rockford this afternoon and were quietly married. They will go on to Chicago tonight and make their future home in Texas where the groom will be employed.

Miss Belveal will be remembered as the young Evansville girl who ran away from home two weeks ago and was arrested at the North-Western depot in Chicago on a telegram from Chief Hogan, and brought back home last Saturday. The girl claims her home has not been pleasant and she came to Janesville last Monday.

Bratt came from Chicago at the same time and on Wednesday they went to Evansville and obtained a written consent of Mrs. Belveal to the marriage which occurred today.

ROOSEVELT STEPS OUT OF A TRAP SET FOR HIM

Refuses Federal Aid in Suppressing Riots Among The Coal Miners.

(Special By Scripps-McBee.) Denver, Nov. 20.—The governor's request on President Roosevelt for troops to suppress the rioting among the miners of the coal district is considered to be a move on the part of enemies of Roosevelt to involve him in labor difficulties. Word has been received from Washington that the president will not consider the proposition and will not send troops as requested.

STATE NOTES

James Allston, a negro, arrested for vagrancy at Coleman, Wis., who had been living in a cave dug in the side of a hill, says he has leprosy and gives that as a reason why he has been living apart from humanity.

H. C. Salisbury of Cumberland, Wis., has been appointed by Governor La Follette, third municipal judge of Barron county, in place of A. N. Anderson, resigned.

While driving home from Algona, Albert Schmelling, a farmer, aged 60 years, was struck by a train and instantly killed.

Ludwig Moehre, a farmer, was probably fatally injured at Plymouth by jumping from a Sheboygan-Plymouth electric car while it was in motion.

Caught robbing the residence of Homer Royce at Kenosha, an unknown burglar leaped from a second story window and, though injured, made his escape.

John F. Donovan of Milwaukee has been engaged to defend Robert McCullough, who will be tried in the circuit court at Racine next week, in connection with the "tower" cases, a young girl being the chief witness.

The Portage county board has been petitioned to appropriate $10,000 in relief of sufferers from a cyclone, which caused damage to the extent of $60,000 in the south of the county early in October.

At a session of the Winnebago county board a resolution providing for the payment by the county of a bounty of 10 cents for every crow killed in the county, and 25 cents for every henhawk killed, was referred to a special committee.

KILLED COMPANION, CLAIMING HE WAS AGENT OF THE MAFIA

Geneva, Illinois, the Scene of the Death of a Secret Agent of the Great Mafia.

(Special By Scripps-McBee.) Geneva, Ill., Nov. 20.—Michel Angelo Filippise, by his own confession, one of the men who assassinated Chief of Police Hennessey, of New Orleans during the Mafia troubles in the southern city several years ago, was hanged here today for the murder of Nicholas Tomasso, at Aurora, a few months ago because Tomasso had disobeyed the Mafia's orders in not assisting in the murder. He was chosen to assist in the murder of Hennessey, but lost heart at the last moment and fled. Filippise went to Europe after the assassination, but returned to America a year ago, his object being to hunt down Tomasso. He found the latter at Aurora, after a long search and secured work as a section hand, Tomasso, being foreman of the gang. One morning Tomasso, was found dead in his car, his head having been crushed with an ax. Filippise was immediately suspected and after his arrest confessed. His story of the Mafia is discredited by some of the authorities, who are of the opinion that Filippise attempted to rob Tomasso while he slept and being caught in the act resorted to murder to conceal the lesser offense.

EMPEROR STILL SUFFERING MUCH

HAS NOW BEEN ORDERED INTO SOUTHERN ITALY.

HE MAY COME HOME SOON

Physicians Announce He May Possibly Be Able to Return to Germany by Christmas.

(Special By Scripps-McBee.) Berlin, Nov. 20.—A semi-official newspaper report published today announces that His Majesty Emperor William has been ordered by his physician to the southern part of Italy for his throat trouble. It is said that his condition is critical and that he must leave for the south at once. He may be able to return to Berlin by Christmas but this is not promised by the doctors. The reports received make the danger of the recent operation a hundred fold more alarming to the people generally. Lung trouble is feared and a cancer is also hinted at by those who claim to know of the case.

DISCOVERS NEW DOUBLE STARS

Prof. Hussey, of Lick Observatory, Now in Australia, Makes New Finds.

London, Nov. 20.—A Daily Mail dispatch from Sydney says that Prof. Hussey of the Lick Observatory of California, who for several weeks has been camping at Canoblas near Orange, New South Wales, has discovered ten new double stars which he regards as extremely important. Prof. Hussey, who is visiting Australia in pursuance of the Lick observatory scheme to establish a chain of astronomical stations round the world, has removed his camp to the Blue mountains for the purpose of making further observations and expresses himself as confident of making more discoveries.

MILTON BEATEN BY DROP KICK

Loses Its Game with the Whitewater Normal by a Narrow Margin of Five Points.

A closely contested game yesterday between Milton college and Whitewater normal school at Milton, resulted in a score of 5 to 0 in favor of Whitewater. The first half ended with the ball within a yard and a half of Whitewater's goal. The winning score was made by Alkin of Whitewater in the first half by a drop kick from the 20-yard line. The return game will be played at Whitewater the 28th.

George M. Decker sold 408 cases of 1901 leaf yesterday, making 1,200 cases in all of this crop, to the Tuckett Cigar Co. of Hamilton, Ontario. The tobacco filled eight cars.

STRIKE STILL TIES UP TRAFFIC

CHICAGO SEES NO END TO THE PRESENT TROUBLE.

EXPECT REQUEST REFUSED

Mayor and Committee Will Again Try To Make a Settlement of the Difficulties.

(Special By Scripps-McBee.) Chicago, Ill., Nov. 20.—Members of the board of the striking division of car men assembled today to discuss the proposition laid down to them by the traction company at the request of the mayor and council committee on arbitration. At union headquarters it is not thought the proposition will be accepted. The situation today is apparently that the mayor and council committee would have to try again to make a settlement. It was flatly declared this morning that union officials will never agree to the proposition of the street car company.

SULTAN'S GRAND VIZIER GOES OUT

Efforts of Palace Clique to Foul Russia-Austrian Pact, Causes Crisis.

Constantinople, Nov. 20.—The grand vizier has resigned on account of the efforts of the palace clique to prevent the acceptance of the Russo-Austrian reform scheme. The Turkish foreign office has been notified that if the program is not accepted this week the Austro-Hungarian and Russian ambassadors will personally present the sultan with copies thereof and hold him responsible for the consequences of its non-acceptance.

MUCH WORK FOR THE POSTMASTER

Mr. Nowlan Expects Busy Holiday Season with Increased Business and Moving.

Postmaster Nowlan stated this morning that he would have more than enough work on hand before and during the holidays, for besides the Christmas rush and the troublesome operations connected with the moving and settling in the new post office he will have the work of getting the new rural deliveries started, which in itself is no light task. The work of moving from the old to the new quarters will be so arranged that the former home of the Janesville mail will be locked up one evening as usual and the next morning the citizens will get their letters from the new boxes and through the plate glass windows of Uncle Sam's brand new repository for Bower City letters.

days there will be a slump in English dukes. The figure now is unreasonably high.

EXECUTION IN THE MORMON CITY, OF A NOTED MURDERER

S. A. COOK COMES OUT FOR PLACE

Announces That He is a Candidate for the Republican Nomination for Governor.

Former Congressman S. A. Cook of Neenah is a candidate for the nomination for governor. The following interview with Mr. Cook appeared in the Neenah Daily News Thursday afternoon:

"Will you be a candidate for governor," he was asked.

"As a factional candidate, no," replied Mr. Cook, with emphasis on the word "No." "The nomination for governor, coming from an harmonious united party is an honor any man may aspire to. I should be proud to have the nomination of the party in that way. If, however, I should be the choice of the people, through their delegates at the next republican state convention, where it will be their sacred duty to place in nomination some suitable person for the important position of governor of this commonwealth, I should not only consider it an honor; but also a duty, to respond to the call; and, if so chosen, I have no doubt I would be elected. If placed in such a position I would strive, as I have in my past life, to deal justly with all. And, in the meantime, I will keep right on attending to my business. I not only think it a good thing to do, but that it is a good time to be busy. It may not always be so, who knows?"

MISSOURI CORN WILL STAND HIGH AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

Hanley B. Sexton Receives Interesting Letter from Former Janesville Man, Daniel R. Brand.

Hanley B. Sexton of this city has received an interesting communication from a former friend and resident of Janesville who will be remembered here by many of the older residents. Daniel R. Brand writes from Carrollton, Missouri, as follows: "This morning by mail I send you two ears of Missouri corn. It is from the flooded district and was expected to have been killed by the water. The ears were not plucked out but are the average size of the whole crop in this section; which ranges from twelve to seventeen inches in length. If you can not compare Wisconsin growth, with ours, show it around to your people and especially to your editor and if they can appreciate a big thing, well and good. These ears are from Mr. Baker's farm east of this place and the stalks are from twelve to fifteen feet high. Missouri will stand at the head on corn at the world's fair, both in size and quality. The above is Mr. Brand's letter in part and the ears in question are on exhibition at the Gazette office. They are both over fourteen inches in length and have over eight hundred kernels apiece. Mr. Brand not only had many friends in Janesville at the time of his residence here but was known throughout the state. He was a member of the Twelfth Wisconsin battery.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

The hotel conducted by Mrs. George Lloyd at Glens Ferry, Idaho, was destroyed by fire and it is feared one or more of the guests lost their lives. The building contained thirty rooms, which were nearly all occupied.

By the arrest at Ogden, Utah, of George Wells, the police claim to have secured one of the ringleaders of a gang of highwaymen and murderers who have been terrorizing the country between Ogden and Reno with a series of crimes.

Mortenson Shot to Death by Six Expert Shots.

Pays Penalty for Crime.

MANY WANTED JOB

Asked the Sheriff To Let Them Shoot the Daring Criminal—A Strange Scene.

(Special By Scripps-McBee.)

The execution of Mortenson was in the hands of sheriff Emery of Salt Lake county. For some time past he had been inundated with applications from men who wanted to act as executioners. Out of a large number he selected six good shots. These men reported for duty last night. Their identity was kept secret and the greatest precautions were taken in this direction. The spot selected for the execution was near the north end of the recreation yard within the walls of the state prison. Here was erected a small tent furnished with loopholes. Inside were the executioners who wore long linen dusters and masks. They were the first to enter the yard this morning and did not leave until Mortenson's body had been removed and every one save the guards had departed. The men were furnished rifles from the prison armory. Of the six rifles, five were loaded with ball and one with a blank cartridge. The men took the weapons from a rack, none knowing which was the harmless gun. After Mortenson was turned over to the sheriff the condemned man was escorted to the yard and placed in position about 20 paces in front of the tent. Following the usual preliminaries a physician pinned a small piece of white paper with a black bull's eye in the center, over the man's heart. He then stepped back and the next Sheriff Emery gave the signal and six reports rang out. Five bullets took effect and Mortenson toppled over dead. Shortly afterwards the body was removed to the prison chapel where the physician in attendance held an autopsy.

The crime for which Mortenson paid the penalty was the murder of James R. Hay, on the night of Dec. 16, 1901. Hay was the treasurer of the Pacific Lumber company, with which firm Mortenson, in the capacity of a building contractor, did business. Both men belonged to the same Mormon Sunday school, Mortenson being a teacher in the theological class. Prior to the murder Mortenson told Hay to call at his house and he would take up a note for $3,800, held against him by the company. The next day Mortenson exhibited the note, but Hay was missing. The theory that Hay had absconded with the money was exploded two days later when his body was found buried in a pasture adjacent to the Mortenson residence.

The man who made the discovery went to Mortenson and secured his assistance in exhuming the body of the murdered cashier. Hay had been shot from behind. The trial that followed the arrest was one of the most sensational in the history of Utah. One of the dramatic features was the testimony of John Sharp, father-in-law of Hay, that he knew Mortenson was guilty, because the Almighty had revealed it to him in a vision. Throughout the evidence was purely circumstantial. The case was twice appealed to the Supreme court.

The execution was the ninth legal execution in the history of Utah and the third since statehood. Out of this number eight selected to be shot and one to be hanged.

STILL WORKING ON THE ROBBERY

Sheriff Appleby Taking No Chances—Believes He Will Land the Men Yet.

The Madison Journal has solved the Bostwick silk robbery. They firmly believe that Bloomington Red, and John Hess are the men who turned the trick in the big store last Saturday night. They also believe that these men robbed Jonas Bros. store at Madison and also the Rockford store. Sheriff Appleby when told the theory this afternoon laughed at it. Bloomington Red is still in prison at Chester, Illinois, and will be for some time to come, and John Hess is working every day at Quincy, Illinois, where he is living with his wife and two sons. In fact Sheriff Appleby telephoned to Quincy on Tuesday and found that Hess was hauling clinders to and from the work house every day without any interruption. The sheriff is of the opinion that the goods are still in hiding and that when they begin to move they will be found out and captured. He does not despair of finally landing the burglars, although he says it may take time.

John Duke was found guilty of embezzlement at Portsmouth, O. He was secretary of the Royal Building and Loan association.

PREPARE HORSES FOR BIG SHOW

M'LAY BROS' AND GALBRAITHS AFTER PRIZES.

THE LIST OF ENTRIES LARGE

Rock County Horsebreeders Are Looking for the Blue Ribbon.

The two prominent Rock county horse breeders, Alexander Galbraith & Son and Mc Lay Brothers are busy preparing for the International Live Stock show which opens in Chicago a week from Saturday. The former will enter twenty-seven head and the latter nineteen.

Many Exhibits
Every live stock breeder in the United States, whether able to attend or not, is taking an interest in this exhibition which is yearly becoming of greater importance to the breeder of animals not only in this country but in every part of the civilized world. The very best that the farmer, stock raiser and horseman can produce is seen in this exhibition and the judge's standards for every class; cattle, sheep, hogs and horses are yearly becoming higher and the exhibits reach a general stage of perfection that is seldom seen in any other show of the kind.

Galbraiths' Entry
The Galbraiths and Mc Lays expect to carry off the honors in the draft horses and the former will enter twelve Clydesdales, four Shires, four Suffolks, two German coachers, two Hackneys and three ponies. The above is the estimate at this time although the list may be changed somewhat before the show.

McLay Entries
McLay Brothers will take to the Windy City nineteen Clydesdales, including some former famous prize winners and several new ones. In the Clydesdale classes, this stud has carried off the majority of the prizes in of the past three years at the International.

Point Winners
In point of numbers the Galbraiths will be one of the largest exhibitors in the draft horse classes. The largest list of entries from one firm will number thirty-five at the most and will range about thirty head in the show and an Indiana firm may send a few over that number but the majority of entries from any one farm will be less than twenty head.

Interesting Sight
The International is an exhibition of interest not only to the breeders of live stock but citizens generally of every class, as the animals appearing in the show ring are an education in themselves. The exhibition of the heavy horses and teams in harness of the Chicago brewers, express companies and the like with finely equipped wagons and trappings is a sight not soon forgotten by the spectator.

Prize Horses
From the McLay farm in the three year old class will go Prince Elegant. This stallion took second prize in the two year old class at the International last year. In the latter class Sir Hilderbrand and Mary Tom will be placed. The last stallion has never been at the International but won first prize at the Wisconsin State fair this fall. In the yearling class, His Royal Highness, a promising young animal will try for honors. He won second prize at the Chicago show last year in the yearling class. In the aged class will be entered Gold Leaf. This mare is a fine animal with excellent action and great things are expected of her by the owners. This will be the mare's first appearance at the big show as in other years she has been with foal.

Older Horses
In the three year olds, some very strong animals to be entered from the farm are Princes Handsome and Goodwin. These mares won first and second prizes as yearlings at the International last winter. Two promising mares will be entered in the two year old class; Lady Elegant and Queen Wilhelmina. These went as yearlings at the last Chicago show but did not succeed in capturing the ribbons. When interviewed yesterday David McLay stated that they did not expect to have entries for the yearling classes this year. A number of State fair winners will be taken, among them being Tillman's Match, a four year old that won at the fair last fall.

All Imported
The Galbraith horses are nearly all imported and will be shown for the first time; the following is the list of entries and names: In the aged Clydesdale class are five, Baron Robtill, Woodend Garry, Sir Christopher, Airle and Uncon Kenneth. The stallions in the three year-old class are Linesman and Searchlight. Three will be entered in the two-year-old class, Rockingham 2nd, and in the three year old division, Enfield Hercules, and there will be one entry in the two year old class. Two horses, Rendlesham Albert and Rufus will be entered in the aged Suffolk class and in the two year olds, Bently Conjuror and Standard Bearer. Two Hackney horses will be entered in the three year old classification, Gay Pioneer and Stuntly Marcellus. There will be one German Coach horse exhibited, Hoffman, as a three year old and in the pony lists under thirteen hands high the celebrated English prize winner, Imp. Montgomery George, will be shown.

HAVE PLEASANT SOCIAL TIME

Banquet is Served at Morse and Flynn's New Restaurant.
The Knights of Columbus held a social meeting followed by a dance at the West Side Odd Fellows hall last evening and over fifty couples enjoyed themselves until a late hour. After the dance the party went to Morse and Flynn's restaurant where refreshments were served.

MANY SCHOOLS NOW ON THE LIST

St. Louis Exposition Will Have a Goodly Display of Wisconsin School Exhibits.

The activity which has been shown by the school authorities in different parts of the state in preparing exhibits for the St. Louis World's Fair has two fold advantage. Not only are thousands of children enthused over the prospect of having the results of their school-room labors present at the greatest exhibit of the product of man the world has ever seen, but the stimulus which follows will be of incalculable value. Many cities of the state have already begun with this work while many others have the subject under consideration.

The list of cities now enrolled indicates a lively interest in the educational growth of the state and pride on the part of authorities in the achievements of their several school systems.

A partial list of the assignment of space at the World's Fair is reported as follows by Chairman Geo. Bruce, of the Wisconsin committee of Educational exhibits:

To Ashland, Appleton, Berlin, Eau Claire, Fond du Lac, Green Bay, Janesville, Madison, Menomonie, Milwaukee, Neenah, Oshkosh, Superior, College and University at Beloit Madison Milwaukee, Ripon Some State Normal school, two county schools of Agriculture and Domestic Science, the seven county Training schools; the State Industrial school for boys and girls; the Home for the Feeble Minded, etc.

The state department of education will present matters relating to the schools in general and to teachers' institutes. Some of the producers of special appliances for the schools will also be represented.

THE KATZENJAMMER KIDS AT THE MYERS

Played Last Night to a Large Audience, and Efforts of the Troupe Were Well Received.

Last evening was ladies' night at the rooms of the Unique club and an enjoyable social time was held. Delightful refreshments were served and the music for dancing was furnished by Baldwin and Rehfeld's orchestra. The present officers of the society are Edward Connel, president; Charles Kneff, vice-president; Wm. McCue, treasurer, and Edward Jerg, secretary. Among those present at the last evening party were: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Skelly, Ed. Amerpohl, Chas. Kneff, Alfred Jerg, Chas. Young, Ed. Fawcett, John Horn, Harry Schmidley; Mesdames Skelly; Misses Hildgard Peterson, Mamie Kneff, Lillian Buob, Beatrice Prelar, Hill, Van Vian, Mamie Blunk, Della Buob, Conway, Denver, Col. Quirk; Messrs. Chas. Ellis James Riley, Edward Connel, William Denison, William McCue, Henry Casey, Thomas Howe, Will Bowen, Morris Dalton, Chas. Strickler, Edward Jerg, Rudolph Zimmerman Hal Wright, Frank George.

FIFTY TO GO FROM HERE

Knights of Pythias Will Institute New Order at Clinton Tonight.
A new lodge of the Knights of Pythias is to be formed at Clinton and the charter members will number twenty-five. Many will attend the ceremonies from this city, Beloit and other neighboring towns. The Beloit delegation will go in a special car and arrangements have been made to accommodate the visitors at the hotel over night if any wish to remain. The Janesville members can leave on the seven o'clock train via the North-Western line, returning leaving Clinton at 11:45 p. m., or 1:30 a. m.

WILL BE TAKEN TO ILLINOIS

Remains of the Late Dr. F. H. Judd and Dr. Thor Judd to be Moved.
Word has been received from Mrs. Philip Mitchell, a former resident of this city and now residing in Rock Island, Ill., requesting that the remains of her father, Dr. F. H. Judd, and her brother, Dr. Thor Judd, be removed from Oak Hill cemetery and sent to Rock Island, as she wishes the bodies to be nearer her present home.

Do you like Mrs. Austin's New Dress?

MANY GOING FROM HERE TO SEE THANKSGIVING GAMES

At Capitol City—Fort Atkinson to Struggle for State Championship in Morning.

Arrangements have been made to hold the state championship football game at Camp Randall, Madison, on the morning of November 26. This plan was arranged by Matthew Conlin, coach for the Eau Claire high school team which will meet Fort Atkinson in the final contest for the honor. It is thought that many will go from this city on account of the two games, as Wisconsin and Minnesota meet on the same field in the afternoon.

Gesme, who has been acting as day operator here, will resume his position at the night desk tonight. Acting Night Operator Clough has taken charge of the day office at Milton Junction for a period of three months, the regular operator, Carl Davy, having been granted a leave of absence for that period.

A bulletin was received at the depot this morning announcing that the pontoon at North McGregor on the Mississippi river was open and traffic in that direction would have to be discontinued for the time being. It was considered probable that the bridge would be repaired before night.

The St. Paul road as well as the North Western will offer fare-and-a-third rates for the round trip to Madison next Thursday. A large Janesville delegation will undoubtedly witness the Wisconsin-Minnesota game.

General Railroad Notes

Fred Ehtsman, late trainmaster of the Champaign division of the Illinois Central, has been appointed superintendent of the Kentucky division of that road, with headquarters at Fulton, Ky.

The freight offices of the Rock Island in Omaha were notified yesterday of a radical cut in through grain rates from Nebraska points to Chicago and St. Paul and Minneapolis, reducing the low rate already made by the Chicago Great Western. Under the new rate the Rock Island secures an advantage on through shipments to eastern and northern grain markets.

Application was made in the federal court in Omaha yesterday for an injunction against the city officials restraining them from the enforcement of an ordinance by which the Chicago Great Western railway was granted the use of certain streets in the construction of its freight yard trackage. The significance of the application is the repeated attempt to block the Great Western in building freight yard buildings.

At the convention of the southern railway commissioners in New Orleans yesterday Vice President Smith of Alabama submitted a report on uniform classification. In which he recommended that congress enact a law conferring upon the interstate commerce commission authority to adopt and enforce a classification which should be uniform throughout the United States if possible. Discussion of the report developed much opposition.

SHEEP PENS IN GREAT NUMBERS

EDGERTON HAS A NEW INDUSTRY.

DR. SHEPARD IS IN CHARGE

Feeds and Waters Sheep Being Shipped into Chicago Markets From the West.

Few people know that at Edgerton one of the largest sheep stations in the state of Wisconsin is being operated by Dr. Shepard and that from fourteen to forty thousand sheep are being daily fed watered and otherwise made ready for the Chicago market by the doctor and his corp of able assistants. Every thing that modern science and ingenuity in the care of sheep in done at the Edgerton pens.

Fed On Screenings.
The tired and hungry sheep who are landed from the cars after their long and tedious trip from the Pacific coast are given the best of feed. During the summer months the four hundred-acre field adjoining the pens is thrown open for them and here they can gambol and play to their hearts content. Cool running water from deep artesian wells and from a little brook that flows through them make them ideal for the purposes they are used for. In the winter screenings from the great Minneapolis mills is fed them with sweet hay, all they want.

Many Thousand.
Last year Dr. Shepard with the co-operation of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road started this depot for sheep. He began on a small scale and from the start kept adding to his increasing capacity. Last fall he had feeding yards for five thousand sheep. Now he has more than doubled this branch. From three sheds he has now eight with more in contemplation. In pasturing he has accommodation for thirty-five thousand sheep at one time and over twenty thousand in the sheds during the winter.

Fed Then Shipped.
The sheep are taken from the cars and fed watered and cared for. During their long trip from the coast they have shrunk in weight and have become fretful and many of them sick. The sick and weak are picked from the others and those that are fit for an immediate market are shipped down at night after a good rest and feeding and arrive in the Chicago market early in the morning in the pink of condition.

Increasing Business.
The sheep business of the great northwest is steadily increasing and in consequence the business of the Edgerton yards is increasing rapidly. Good pasturage and good care are features of Dr. Shepard's yards and the strange sights of countless thousands of bleating sheep are becoming every day sights in the little Rock county city on the northern end of the map.

THE FIRM TAKES ALL RISK.

Says if Mi-na Fails to Make You Well, It Will Cost You Nothing.
You have nothing to lose when you buy a package of Mi-na, the flesh-forming food and digestion regulator at King's Pharmacy or Peoples Drug Co., reliable drug stores. They take all the risk; you have nothing to lose.

If Mi-na does not give a natural increase in flesh, cure dyspepsia and restore health, they will refund the money on your simple say so. This remarkable preparation is a true flesh-forming food that builds up good, healthy, solid flesh and muscle, and makes thinness and scrawiness a thing of the past. The price is only 50c a package and it will cost you nothing unless it gives perfect satisfaction. Mi-na is the only flesh-forming food that is prepared in tablet form and is pleasant and easy to use. It mingles with the food you eat, aids assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and restores health to the whole physical system.

The benefit from Mi-na is not more relief. It tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and permanent cures follow its use. The thin and emaciated, anemic who use Mi-na will have a natural increase of firm, solid flesh so that the outlines become plump and pleasing. Begin the use of Mi-na today at King's Pharmacy or Peoples Drug Co.'s risk. And if it doesn't, your weight and cures you of indigestion, it will cost you 50c. If it does not, they will pay for the treatment and return your money to you.

MOLASSES FOR HORSES.

Recently scientific tests have been made as to what is the best feed for horses that are unthrifty or sick. Instead of feeding them corn or molasses, it is given with the most satisfying results. A horse that weighed 800 pounds gained 40 pounds in two weeks on a molasses diet, and in a month he had gained nearly 100 pounds to his weight. All signs of disease disappeared and his new coat of hair was glossy and beautiful. This experiment was but one of hundreds, all showing the wonderful curative and health-giving properties of Molasses Food. Farmers, druggists and others who own horses should give the Molasses Food a test. It is cheap, and if as represented by scientists, it can re-make and re-build run-down horses. It will prove invaluable to owners of horse flesh. This feed for sale at

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They Are Janesville People, and What They Say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press; are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

Mrs. S. L. Belden of 64 S. River street says: "During two or three years I suffered most of the time with a terrible dragging down pain in my back just over the kidneys. It was very trying when I was at work and if I did any lifting my bladder became affected causing me considerable annoyance. I also had attacks of headache which seemed like congestion in the top and back of my head. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills I did not have any too much confidence in them but my daughter got a box at the People's Drug Co.'s store and persuaded me to use them. They took right hold and made a wonderful change in my condition. I hardly realized how bad I was until Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief from the afflictions."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for U. S.; also on sale at King's Pharmacy.

LABOR TALK FOR WORKMEN

Gossip From All Over.

Gov. Peabody and Commissioner of Labor Montgomery have given up hope of being able to avert a general strike of miners in District 15, which includes Colorado, New Mexico, and Wyoming.

The striking laborers on the power plants of Niagara Falls, have returned to work, accepting $1.50 a day, and the strike is over. The militia on guard there have been ordered home.

The tugmen's strike at Cleveland, O., has been settled.

Sam Parks has been sentenced to two years and three months in Sing Sing.

Union labor now faces a fallen market for labor. The pig-iron output is cut a fifth to a fourth, say four millions tons a year, worth say $60,000,000, nearly all paid to labor at one stage or another. The New York Central has dropped fifteen hundred men, the Homestead Steel Works two thousand. The facts in regard to unused material and discharged men in the iron and steel industry are serious in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Chicago this year built three miles less of frontage and put $13,601,835 less into building than last year. Colorado lost $6,000,000—again mostly labor—by the Cripple Creek strikes.

Arbitration having failed, the International association of Machinists has given up the general marine machinists' strike for a minimum wage scale of $3 a day. The strike was inaugurated in May. Some of the strikers' places have been taken by members of the Amalgamated society of Engineers, an international organization, with headquarters in Great Britain, which has been fighting the international association for years.

Thirty thousand puddlers and finishers throughout the country received a reduction in wages at the bi-monthly adjustment which was made Nov. 10.

The wages based on the selling price of bar iron of the prevailing quotations, are somewhat lower than two years ago. The men will receive a cut of 25 cents at once.

A strike of 2,000 tanners and curriers in the leather of the American Hide and Leather company, is said to be imminent in Chicago. The men have recently been granted shorter hours and a better rate per hour, but they declare that conditions imposed make it impossible to earn as much per week as formerly.

BAENSCH FOR GOVERNOR.

The announcement is formally made by the Germania, of Milwaukee, that Judge Emil Baensch, of Manitowoc, will be a candidate before the next republican state convention, for the office of governor. This does not come as a surprise as it has been currently reported for the past week or more that the judge was giving the question favorable consideration.

It will be gratifying to a large number of republicans in the state to know that a candidate is in the field who is free from the taint of factional strife, and about whom they can rally.

Judge Baensch is this kind of a man. He is not the candidate of any faction, and he is entitled to the united support of the republican party.

The time is ripe for the party to get together on a compromise candidate. Factional strife has rent the party in twain and bitterness has been engendered to such an extent that loyalty has been sacrificed and judgment ignored.

The strife has been so wide spread that it has covered every portion of the state, and so unseemly that it has disrupted friendship, and created many scars that time and a spirit of conciliation alone can erase.

This fight has not been directed at enemies, but has been carried on by men who have worked together in harmony, and lived together as friends.

It has developed into a Kentucky feud, with rifles left out, and the rank and file of the party will welcome the day when peace can be declared and harmony again established.

There are no great issues before the state which can not be settled without the aid of partisan leaders. The people are to vote on the much discussed primary law, and the verdict rendered will be a popular verdict.

So far as the railroads and tariff schedules are concerned, every fair minded man desires to meet the questions fairly and deal justly with all classes of property. If the railroads are not bearing their share of burdens, or if they are charging too much for services rendered, adjustment can be made without friction, and the pleasant relations so long existing can be maintained.

The Gazette will cheerfully support the candidacy of Judge Baensch, believing that harmony, which is more desirable than any thing else can best be secured by so doing.

TRICKY POLITICS.

The Rice Lake Leader publishes a very sensible article on state taxes, and shows the fallacy of the claim that there will be no tribute necessary this year for state expenses. This fact will be established when tax payers call for their receipts. The paper says:

"For rot and humbug, nothing equals a tricky politician. The latest appears from the state capital with a blare of trumpets that there is to be no state tax this year, as if that is something extraordinary and out of the usual. Several times of late years, the same thing has occurred, even during the democratic administration of Governor George W. Peck, who had a surplus in the general fund and very sensibly used it instead of levying a tax for general purposes. During the past year the state has received from the general government nearly a half million of dollars, the same being to cover the expenditures of the state in equipping and caring for troops during the civil war, which with the $1,800,000 specific tax received from the railroads, will pay the running expenses of the state the next year, and thus obviate a tax levy. And by the way, we would call attention to the fact that the railroads and corporations are about paying the current expenses of the state—and yet the demagogues howl for more taxes from those interests. On the whole, it was the wise financial administration of ex-Governor Scofield in putting an end to borrowing from the school funds to pay current state expenses, thus leaving a large deficit in that fund at the end of each fiscal year, so that a tax levy for the general fund each succeeding year was absolutely necessary. But we shall have a state tax just the same, and Barron county will pay $5,783.10, which will not be as large as it was last year, but sufficiently large to let us know that we are paying taxes."

ing an end to borrowing from the school funds to pay current state expenses, thus leaving a large deficit in that fund at the end of each fiscal year, so that a tax levy for the general fund each succeeding year was absolutely necessary. But we shall have a state tax just the same, and Barron county will pay $5,783.10, which will not be as large as it was last year, but sufficiently large to let us know that we are paying taxes."

THE DANGER LINE.

Organized labor is standing close to the danger line when it favors adopting socialism as a principle. The question is now being discussed in convention at Boston, and while it is not likely to be adopted, the sentiment expressed in favor of it indicates that the organization is badly thinned with the idea.

Socialism, like many other isms, is plausible. Like free trade, free silver, the robber tariff, and soulless corporations, there is never any trouble in finding arguments by men who think in channels, and who never see but one side of a question.

Socialism is as foreign to Americanism as it is possible for any extreme to be. It contemplates equality of brain, intellect and ability, and assumes that all men are born free and equal with an emphasis on the equal.

It makes no allowance for conditions and environments, and believes that all men should share and share alike. It would have the government own and operate all public utilities and as its final goal would have all property equally distributed.

The theory may be plausible, but put in practice it would disrupt the nation in a twelvemonth.

Organized labor will do well to listen to the advice of Samuel Gompers and men of his class.

STATE MEETING WELL ATTENDED

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION'S CONFERENCE.

MRS. BROWN IS ENDORSED

Chapters Throughout Wisconsin Favor Her Being Continued as State Regent.

Yesterday's session of the state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution was full of interest to the members of the order who met here in convention. The Janesville chapter, of which Miss Catherine Fifield is the regent, were the hostesses of the occasion and a delegate from each chapter many ladies from the different chapters throughout the state were present. Madison sent seventy and Beloit Keedburg, and Fort Atkinson were well represented.

Interesting Meeting. The meetings were full of interest to all. Mrs. Thomas Brown, of Milwaukee, the state regent presided and it was by her able handling of the conference that much was accomplished. Just before the adjournment, Mrs. Brown gave the chair to Mrs. Walter Kempster, of Milwaukee, and a vote of the opinion of the different chapters as to whom the next state regent should be resulted in an unanimous choice for the continuation of Mrs. Thomas Brown and the sentiment so expressed will be the action taken by the Wisconsin delegation at the next Continental congress when the state regent is elected. An election of other officers of the conference resulted in the choice of Mrs. Ogden H. Fether, as vice regent, Mrs. Frank D. Hoskins, of Fond du Lac, as secretary and Mrs. Hadden, of Milwaukee, as treasurer.

Mrs. Kempster's Report. The report of Mrs. Walter Kempster, chairman of the national committee on flag desecration, was one of the interesting subjects discussed by the conference at their afternoon meeting. Mrs. Kempster has for many years been chairman of this important committee and the report of the work already accomplished in preserving the flag for the purposes it was designed for and excluding all use as advertisements was very interesting. Twenty-six states have passed state laws regarding the keeping of the flag sacred to the purposes of a national emblem and now the committee of the Daughters working with the flag protective association, of which President Roosevelt is a member hope to have a national law passed which will end the matter for all time. The army and navy have passed stringent rules regarding the printing of the names of battles on the national emblem and this is considered a great step in the direction sought by the members of the committee. Colonel Nicholas Smith, former editor of the Gazette, has recently published a little book on the flag and this work is dedicated to Mrs. Kempster in appreciation of the great work she as a member of this committee is attempting to do for preserving the flag.

Other Features. Another interesting feature of the conference was the report of the different chapter regents and the work being done by each chapter in the way of study offering of prizes making presentations to public schools and libraries and aiding in the erection of the national memorial building at Washington. No definite action as a conference was taken but it served to keep each chapter in touch with the sister chapters as to the work being accomplished.

APPLE CROP IS FAIR THIS YEAR

Total of Seventeen Carloads Will Furnish Outside Supply This Season.

Janesville has already consumed nearly eight carloads of apples this fall besides the local supply. The home grown fruit has not been any thing extra but the general market condition of the crop has been fair this year. Hanley Brothers have received and disposed of nearly eight carloads already and have contracted for nine or ten carloads more, which will close the season. The first lots were Baldwins and Greenings and came mostly from Michigan and New York. The balance of the crop will come from New York.

The "Katzjammer Kids" vaudeville troupe played to a large audience at the Myers Grand last night, and the majority of those who attended the performance were highly pleased and edified with Mrs. Katzjammer's "Vat is it, to it?" "I will sum you for promise of brooches," and other quaint and humorous expressions. As might be expected the piece has no plot and consists of a mélange of song and dance and monologue specialties. The acrobatic and toe dancing of Miss Fan Fennel, the yodel songs of Dixon, and Lang, and the singing and dancing of Carol Triveda and Lela Leland were major attractions. Gus Alexander and Meritor Cragi impersonated the "Kids" and were sufficiently true to the New York Journal's accepted models. A bucking mustang mule and his rider brought back sweet recollections of childhood's days and "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Tell Your Neighbor. King and Cowles have opened several more cases of those $3.00 and $2.50 shoes and will place them on sale tomorrow at $1.45 a pair.

The young boys of Janesville will give a dance in honor of the Beloit football team Saturday night, Nov. 21st, at Central hall. All young folks are cordially invited.

Dr. A. P. Burrus will be at his office, Tallman block, opposite post office, until next Tuesday. Best time to have your teeth attended to before Thanksgiving; high class work; lowest prices.

Attend our special cloak sale given by a manufacturer's agent Saturday, Nov. 21st. T. P. Burns.

The friends of Rev. S. G. Huey, who reside in the city, will be glad to know that he is to preach in the First M. E. church next Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. in exchange with Rev. W. W. Warner.

The King's Daughters of the Baptist church will have a supper for their husbands Monday evening, Nov. 23 at which time a thank offering will be taken, which will take the place of the usual Christmas sale.

Three special bargain lines in children's coats, $2.50, $3.50 and $5.00, ages from 4 to 12 years. They are worth from one-third to one-half more. Archie Reid & Co.

There is nothing which will cause more suffering, both mentally and physically, than trouble with one's eyes, and a little thoughtfulness and careful attention in the first place may be the means of saving one's eyesight. W. F. Hayes is well versed in the proper fitting of glasses and can be found at the store of F. C. Cook, the jeweler, on Saturday of each week. Let him test your sight and tell you where the trouble lies.

RUSH STILL ON

Maynard Shoe Co. Sale Still Attracts Large Crowds.

The big closing out sale of the Maynard Shoe Co., that is being conducted by Stevens Bros. & Co., of Chicago, is still drawing large crowds of satisfied customers. It has been necessary from time to time to increase in number the large force of clerks that were originally on hand to wait on the big crowds. This increase has greatly facilitated matters for all concerned and it is now possible for the gentlemen in charge of the big sale to give all of the prospective customers immediate attention. When the sale first opened this was an impossibility, but while the crowds are just as large as they were the first few days of the sale, everyone is waited on without the former delays. Many big bargains are still offered and it will pay any one to purchase two or three pair of shoes for future wear even though not in need of the shoes at the present time.

FOUR ADDITIONAL RURAL ROUTES

WILL BE IN OPERATION BY DECEMBER FIFTEENTH.

TO CHANGE THE OLD SYSTEMS

So That Eight of the Country Deliveries Will Be Practically New.

Postmaster Nowlan was this morning notified by the authorities at Washington that four new rural free delivery routes are to be started from this city December fifteenth. The exact roads which the men will take cannot be determined until the remainder of the papers and maps arrive from Washington.

Will Change Old Deliveries. Postmaster Nowlan said this morning, however, that there would virtually be eight new routes as the four old ones will be altered so as to give the best service to all, with the additional men.

Welcome News. The news will be welcome to many Rock county farmers who have known that more rural lines were to be added and have been patiently waiting for the time when they could place mail boxes in front of their homes and receive their letters and papers daily as the more fortunate people in other sections have been doing for some time.

Papers Arrived This Morning. The notification to the head of the Janesville postoffice, that the new routes had been decided upon, came in the early mail this morning and the papers describing the roads over which the new men will go are voluminous and fill several typewritten pages. The balance of the explanations and redistricting of the routes is expected tomorrow morning by Mr. Nowlan.

Rural Delivery Maps. When the present delivery lines in the county were laid out a map was forwarded to the postoffice showing the different county roads and describing exactly where each carrier was to go, what turns and crossroads were to be used and other directions for an efficient delivery system.

Wants No Mistakes. The officials believe that another map will arrive in Janesville tomorrow or in the near future which will show exactly how all of the eight lines will be covered and until that diagram arrives, the postmaster can not give out what parts of the different towns will be effected. He is particularly that no erroneous information is given out, so no farmer will be disappointed if his farm does not lie near where the mail carrier is to pass.

Many on List. At the last examination to secure applicants for the positions of rural mail carriers sixty men took the test and the men for the new positions will be selected from those who stood highest in the examination. The postmaster does not yet know who are to have the places on the new lines, but the selections will be given out some time before the fifteenth of next month.

Old Men to Have New Routes. As the old lines are to be changed, the men who have faithfully carried the mail to Rock county farmers for so long are wondering where the new lines of delivery will take them and speculation is rife in this department how the country will be divided. Complete descriptions of the routes will be given as soon as obtainable from the office so that the rural residents will know what to expect.

--A Tip to You--
Our struggling competitors having realized that they are being handicapped by SHURTLEFF'S PERFECTED BOTTLING SYSTEM have of late been bottling UNPASTEURIZED MILK in unsterilized bottles, (oftimes Shurtleff's bottles), in an absurd attempt to gain the exacting public's approval.

No milk should be bot led in unsterilized bottles. WE HAVE THE ONLY BOTTLING STERILIZER in the city. Sterilized bottles are absolutely clean. Pasteurized milk is absolutely PURE. Pure Pasteurized Milk can only be obtained from the Shurtleff Company's agent.

LOUIS JEROME HAS PASSED AWAY

Well Known Resident Went to His Reward on Thursday Evening.

Mr. Louis D. Jerome, one of Janesville's old and representative citizens died at his home 58 North High street last night at 10 o'clock. Mr. Jerome has been ill since the latter part of September, his trouble being a valvular affection of the heart complicated with a general weakness due to old age. He was born in the state of New York in July, 1823 and came to Janesville in 1849 where his home has been ever since, except for brief residences for a few months in Racine and Dubuque, Ia. He was married in October 1855 to Miss Amelia Merrill. Mr. Jerome had been for many years a loyal and consistent member of the Congregational church and he and his wife were for twenty-five years singers in the choir. He was a quiet man, of gentle spirit, of simple and strong Christian faith and of true Christian life. At one time Mr. Jerome was in the milling business, later in the grocery business on the corner of Milwaukee and River Sts., for a time with Mr. F. S. Eldred. He was occupied for a while in the business of tanning morocco leather and of late years had been engaged in raising tobacco. Besides his wife there remain of his immediate relatives, a daughter, Mrs. Wm. Reger Jr., of this city, a brother, Wm. Jerome, of Minneapolis, a sister, Mrs. C. J. Barrows; who for some years has made her home in her brother's family, and two nieces, Miss Belle Allen and Mrs. J. H. Tippett, wife of the pastor of the Court St. Methodist church. The funeral will be held from the home on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

FOOTBALL TALK FOR SATURDAY

BELOIT HIGH SCHOOL PLAYS LOCAL TEAM HERE.

OTHER GAMES SCHEDULED

General Gossip Regarding the Talk of the Gridiron, from All Over.

With bright sharp weather and a wind-up game for the season the spectators at tomorrow's contest between Beloit and Janesville high school football teams are promised a good sharp contest. Beloit has been steadily improving since the game between these two teams early in the season and it is expected that the locals will find that they have a good opponent to meet, well worthy of their brawn and courage. The game will be played at Athletic park and from present indications the Beloit school supporters promise to be very numerous.

Chose Officials. Members of the Beloit team were in the city this morning making final arrangements for the game and selecting the officials who are to act. Beloit had made a protest of Coach Norris as an official, claiming he was too interested in his own team to act as impartially as they thought an official should. The two men settled upon were Wright of Beloit college and Jones of Whitewater.

Other Games. Wisconsin meets Northwestern tomorrow and a line on the Badger players for their Minnesota contest Thanksgiving day can be obtained. The team passed through here this morning on their way to Chicago and from a talk with members the whole team looked for a hard game but expect to win from the purple and also from Minnesota on turkey day.

An Unpleasant Error: Through a typographical error an unpleasant mistake was made in yesterday's issue of this paper, in the funeral notice of the late Mrs. Timothy McKugo. The last name by some mistake was made to read McKelugo.

part of the wickedness; there is

[Copyright, 1876, by Mary Mallock Foote.]

"I guess they've put him in his little bed somewhere between here and Canon Creek; at the Black Dwarf, likely," another voice rejoined.

"At the Black Dwarf, you bet. That was McGowan's partner, the Englishman," said a heavy, suppressed voice, in a tone of authority.

"Lads, did ye hear him chawin' the scenery, givin' himself away like a play actor? 'I'm not what ye think I am,' says he. 'I'm in a cruel equizical position.' You're solid there, me chap—equizical you'll find it. There's comin' a snowslide in these mountains, and some that's on top now will be lyin' underneath, and they won't be lookin' for their hat!"

There were dissenting voices to this implied train of reasoning.

"What's he got to do with snow-slides?" asked one.

"You can't make evidence out of such rot as he's talkin'," said another—"a young fellow turnin' his chin loose about his mashi!"

"Evidence, is it? Here's me evidence if ye want it," said the first voice. "He calls himself Jack Darcie; it may be his name, or it may be only wan av them. He chins with us an' listens to our talk, but he's too fancy for a miner. Malony's widdy does his washin', and he chucks her a dollar as aly as two bits. He's a bird, he's a swell, and makes out he's a workin' man like the rest av us. His han'kyechers is marked with a monnygram, and there's more letters in it than J. D. He writes big, thick letters, and posts them himself; he walks to Wallace to post 'em with his own hand. He's workin' some game on the quiet. He's a spy, I bet ye; he's one of Pinkerton's men; he's a bloody monnylist sneakin' in the scabs on us; else he's a — repourter doin' us up with lies in the papers. Whatever he's here for, he'll have to quit it. We'll give him the word to pack his blankets."

"I bet you've got the wrong pig by the ear," said one of the conservatives. "Dan, ye'd better not be toyin' with him. There's no knowin' which end he'd go off," said another.

"He won't take no invite off'n you, Dan."

"He will take it, then," said the voice addressed as Dan. "He'll take it polite, at a day's outstandin' notice, or he'll take it as he'll get it, at the end av a gun."

III.

THE UNION FROM A NON-UNION POINT OF VIEW.

"Not the least among the hardships of the peaceful, frugal and laborious poor is it to endure the tyranny of mobs, who with lawless force dictate to them, under penalty of peril to life and limb, where, when and upon what terms they may earn a livelihood for themselves and their families. Any government that is worthy of the name will strenuously endeavor to secure to all within its jurisdiction freedom to follow their lawful vocations in safety for their property and their persons while obeying the law. And the law is common sense."

"Mike," said Darcie, looking up from the table, where he had cleared a space for his writing materials, "I am telling my people at home something about the labor troubles here, but upon my life I don't know how to put the thing fairly. I can't see the need of union intervention in the Coeur d'Alene. Do you know what the miners' grievances are?"

"I'll be damned if I do," Mike replied, without hesitation. "We was doin' well. Every man was gettin' his three dollars, or his three and a half, or his four dollars a day, accordin' to what he could 'arn, and we knew no better than be frien's with the men that ped us our wages. That's how it was when I come. 'Twas the age av innocence with us; the lion an' the lamb was lyin' down together, and there wasn't a man av us suspicious of what a set of robbers and iron-heeled oppressors thim mine-owners was till the brotherhood in Butte cast their eye on us in the par'lous shtate we was in."

"Luk at thim-sons av toll over there," says they, 'in darkest Idaho; sellin' themselves for what wages the monnylists chooses to fling them, and not a dollar comin' into the union! We'll attind to that,' they says. And they put up a conversion fund for to carry the gospel into Idaho; yes, and a good thing they med av it, too. They set up the union in our midst, and they med themselves the priests, and get out the law, and gathered the off'rins. They cursed us this wan, and they cursed us that wan, and most partier they cursed him that wouldn't put up his money and come into the tint av meetin'."

Darcie began to laugh. "It's the true I'm tellin' ye," Mike insisted hotly, "though ye'll get a different tale off o' them. But ye're askin' me, and I'm givin' it straight, the way I hare it. 'Tis the game they've worked in every new camp betwixt the Black Hills an' the coast."

"There wasn't a miner come into the Cor de Lane but they nabbed him for a convert; and if he belonged to no union, an' wouldn't be persuaded, they put their shpille on him, and med his bread bitter to him by lvery mane persecution they could lay their hand to. There was moighty few stud out against them. I dunno fwhere I'd be now an I hadn't been me own mine-owner, workin' a contract wid meself. But they ped me more than wan visit, an' they tolled and shweated wid me for to jine them."

"Fwhat do I want wid a union?" I says. 'I'm me own union, heads and hands as God made me. And I niver yet seen the time whin me head couldn't set me hands to work, and me hands couldn't keep me head whist I was doin' it. And if I can't find work in the Cor de Lane,' says I, 'I'll lay me two feet to the road till I'll come where it is.'"

"And they told me I was bought by the labor-devourers, and they had their eye on me for wan that was sowin' treason and settin' a bad example."

"Rape your eye on me all ye want," I says, 'ye'll find me neither makin' nor meddlin'. And any man that folles me example, he'll be doin' his work and mindin' his business, and kapin' his carcass out av Peg-leg's saloon.'"

"Begor! I've seen fellys, that five dollars w'd buy all they was worth in the world, walk into Peg-leg's wid a month's wages in their clothes, and put down a twinty-dollar piece, and call for 'dhrinks for the crowd, and down the change!' Av the unions could put some sence into them, and tache them they can't ate their cake and have it too, or thrump it into the mire, and thim blow for the next man's that's saved his why, they'd be doin' some good."

Darcie pushed back his papers and took up his cigar, swinging about in his chair that he might follow Mike's movements, as the latter talked, and cut "whangs" out of an old boot-leg with that multifarious tool, his pocket-knife.

It was the evening of the day after the visit of the manager and his daughter to the Black Dwarf. Darcie had been noticeably idle in the tunnel all day, and, to Mike's thinking, more than usually silent; and as soon as the table was cleared after supper in the cabin, he began walking and pondering, and finally seated himself with his writing-case before him, as if to free his mind on paper.

"But what was the final hitch? When did the worm conclude to turn?" he inquired.

"Mainin' by the worrum—" "The mine-owners, I should say."

"Well, ye're right. The worrum was makin' money along first, ye'll understand; and a man will suffer a dale in his pride on his principles so long as his pocket's doin' well. But there come a change in that after awhile. The smelters began to squeeze them; an' betwixt the returns an' the union's interference 't was a rocky road for the mine-owners."

"The ould scale av wages, as I was tellin' ye, was three for shovelers an' trimmers, three an' a half for skilled men, underground, and timber-men and shaft-men was gettin' four. But when the union began to lay the law on us, it was three an' a half, they said, every man underground was to get, no matter what he c'd 'arn."

"The managers gev in at the first, though not widout a big kick, on account av the injustice to their best men. They said there'd be trouble, an' there was. When the timber-men found themselves reduced to the same as shovelers, they went out, and the managers called the union bosses to luk at what they done."

"We'll attind to our own men," says they. And the wans that wouldn't give in and take what the union said they sh'd get, was forced to quit and 'lave the country."

"It wasn't this nor it wasn't that, nor it wasn't a matter av fifty cents a day, more nor less for the miner; it was the question which sh'd run the mines, the men that owned them, or the union that owned the miners. 'Twas the power of the brotherhood that was at shtake, and whatever man resisted—'Crow him out!'"

See what we have done to the stock this time, and the prices will do the rest. We endeavor to lay this matter before you as plain as possible, in order that some of the more skeptical ones will not be left behind during the rush, which is pouring in from all directions for 20 miles around. So join the throng of merry shoppers, and let your eyes be your judge, your pocketbook your guide, and your money the last thing to part with unless you spend it at
